Message from the Director

Hello and welcome back to Boston College!

As we begin the fall 2023, we at the Office of Global Education are excited to help students begin their study abroad journey.

For students approved for the spring 2024 semester, your Program Managers will be in touch throughout the semester regarding next steps. Should you have any questions, please contact your Program Manager for more information.

If you are hoping to study abroad during the 2024-2025 academic year, planning for next year begins now. All students wanting to study abroad next academic year, must apply by January 5, 2024. This is the deadline for all semester study abroad applications (fall 2023, full year 2024-25, and spring 2025). If you miss the deadline you will not be able to study abroad next academic year. Students also have the option to apply for a Summer 2024 faculty-led program or internship abroad by February 5, 2024. Learn more about OGE Summer Programs on our website.

Students should carefully review our "Getting Started" page to learn how to begin. All students will need to complete an Initial Advising Questionnaire and attend a Study Abroad 101 session to be eligible to apply to any semester study abroad program. This includes all Boston College and all approved, non-BC external programs. Our office offers multiple Study Abroad 101s each week until the end of the fall semester. The 101s begin September 11 and will end in December; please plan accordingly.

Our website offers more details regarding programs abroad, requirements, academic considerations, financial matters, and additional resources. To complement our general advising and the website, OGE Program Managers (Study Abroad Advisors) can help answer your questions, address any concerns, and offer advice to help you find a program abroad that best meets your interest and goals.

Finally, we invite all students to attend the Boston College Study Abroad Fair on September 12, 2023, from 6pm-8pm on the MAC courts in the Connell Recreation Center. More details below.

We look forward to seeing you!

Regards,
Larry Pickener
