

The BOISI CENTER for

RELIGION and AMERICAN PUBLIC LIFE

Author Meets Critics:

A THEOLOGY OF PUBLIC LIFE

BY CHARLES T. MATHEWES

What has Washington to do with Jerusalem? This groundbreaking book argues that Christian engagement in contemporary pluralistic public life enriches both public life and Christian citizens' faith itself. As such it offers not a "public theology," but a "theology of public life." Two of the nation's most prominent public theologians join author Charles Mathewes for this spirited discussion.

Charles Mathewes
University of Virginia

David Hollenbach, S.J.
Boston College

Ronald Thiemann
Harvard Divinity School

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 4:30 P.M.

Gasson Hall, Room 305 • Boston College

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. IT IS SPONSORED BY THE BOISI CENTER FOR RELIGION AND AMERICAN PUBLIC LIFE AT BOSTON COLLEGE. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CALL 617-552-1860, OR VISIT WWW.BC.EDU/BOISI.