INTRODUCTION

This booklet, prepared by the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty (BCARF), is intended to offer assistance and information to faculty members who have retired or are nearing retirement.

It explains in summary fashion the benefits that Boston College currently provides for its retired faculty with links that describe those benefits that require frequent updates, especially medical. The booklet also supplies up-to-date information about privileges and services available to retired faculty and gives brief descriptions of the programs and activities that are designed to help retirees stay connected to their long-time colleagues and to continue their association with and involvement in the life of the University.

BOSTON COLLEGE ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED FACULTY

HISTORY

Beginning in the mid-1980s, small informal groups began to meet to explore the idea of a retired faculty association at Boston College, its strongest advocate being John D. Donovan, a long-time member of the Sociology Department. But it wasn't until the summer of 2002 that he, together with a small number of retired faculty, met with Dr. John Neuhauser, the then Academic Vice President and Dean of Faculties. Dr. Neuhauser was enthusiastic about the idea and agreed to sponsorship of such an organization. After some research about how to proceed, a working group sent letters to retirees and scheduled planning meetings at which bylaws and a mission statement were drafted and John Lewis, a retired faculty member of the Carroll School of Management, was elected the first president of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty (BCARF). At an Inaugural Luncheon in May 2003 the BCARF was formally established with the endorsement of William P. Leahy, S.J., President of Boston College. Organizationally, BCARF reports to the Provost and Dean of Faculties, from whose office the Association receives major support for all of its activities. At the present time the membership numbers more than two hundred fifty retired faculty.

MISSION

The mission of BCARF is to maintain an ongoing relationship with the University that will provide retirees with the opportunity to (1) serve the retired faculty,

- (2) serve the University, (3) serve the community and larger society, and
- (4) promote collegiality among retired faculty for personal enrichment and active service.

RETIREMENT CONSIDERATIONS

RETIREMENT PLANNING

As a faculty member approaches his or her target date for retirement, it is important to take the time to develop a realistic retirement plan. The following section on Benefits at Retirement provides essential information to assist you with your retirement planning.

DEAN/DEPARTMENT CHAIR RETIREMENT NOTIFICATION

When a faculty member reaches a decision concerning retirement, he or she should meet with the appropriate dean or department chair to determine a specific date for the retirement and to discuss various details of the retirement action. The discussions might cover such areas as part-time teaching and related issues regarding office availability, file space, secretarial services, office supplies, copying, computer access, mail handling, department/school mailings, etc. It is recommended that notification of retirement be made, if possible, at least a semester (and preferably a year) before the retirement date, to allow time for arrangements to be made for a suitable replacement.

At the time of their retirement, certain faculty may be granted Emeritus status by the University President because of their extraordinary contributions to their disciplines and to the University. Deans should make this request of the Provost and Dean of Faculties and provide a rationale for it. The names of faculty emeriti remain in University publications, such as the University Catalog and the Communications Directory.

BENEFITS OFFICE NOTIFICATION

Several months prior to actual retirement, it is very important that the faculty member contact the Benefits Office (617-552-3329) to make necessary arrangements for implementing his/her retirement actions. There are significant decisions to be made concerning medical insurance coverage, retirement plan options, and other benefits. The retiree should know what the options are, which ones are best suited for his/her retirement strategy, and how to initiate any necessary paperwork.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Applications for Social Security retirement benefits should be made by calling Social Security's toll-free number (800-772-1213) or by contacting a local Social Security Office about three months before the expected retirement date. If you were born between 1943 and 1954, then your full retirement age for retirement insurance benefits is 66. Note that when a person reaches full retirement age (FRA) he/she can begin collecting Social Security income even while still working, with no reduction in the benefit. However, it still may be advantageous to wait until age 70 and let the benefits increase even further. This and other issues should be discussed directly with Social Security.

You can create a my Social Security online account to access your Social Security Statement to check your earnings and get your benefit estimates. To set up your account, visit socialsecurity.gov and select Sign In at the top right; then follow the steps indicated.

Application for Medicare enrollment (available at age 65 and after) should be made about three months before the retirement date. For the latest information about Medicare, visit the website (Medicare.gov) or call the toll-free number (1-800-633-4227). Enrollment in both Parts A and B of Medicare is necessary in order to be eligible for the University's post-retirement medical plans. Medicare enrollment after age 65 requires a special Social Security form (SEP). This form must be completed by the Benefits Office to avoid Part B penalty fines.

BENEFITS AT RETIREMENT

Benefit information, premium rates, enrollment schedules, vendors, etc., are subject to change from time to time. To assist you with your benefit-related retirement planning, the Benefits Office publishes a handout reviewing the benefits and information that you should be aware of in conjunction with retirement planning such as:

- Medicare and Social Security Information
- Medical Insurance options available through Boston College
- Dental Insurance
- Life Insurance
- Financial Planning Subsidy
- MetPay (Auto and Home)
- TIAA & Fidelity Contact Information

There are two versions of the information, one for “grandfathered employees” and one for “non-grandfathered employees.” To determine to which group you belong, please see below.

Full-time employees who meet certain criteria and who “officially” retire from Boston College, as well as their spouses, are eligible for medical coverage options in accordance with the following policies. Effective January 1, 2012, Boston College adopted a dual approach toward offering medical coverage for its retirees, one for a group of so-called “grandfathered” employees, and a separate approach for “non-grandfathered” employees (Retirement Medical Savings Account, RMSA). If you are not sure whether or not you qualify as “grandfathered”, you should contact the Benefits Office at 617-552-3329 or benefits@bc.edu.

“GRANDFATHERED” EMPLOYEES

In March 2005 full-time employees were notified that the University was changing its contribution policy for retiree medical coverage from 100% (fully funded) to a 50-50 cost-sharing approach. However, in order to protect those employees with longer service and those who were generally older, employees were advised of their “points” (age plus years of service as of January 1, 2006) and those with 55 or more “points” were considered to be “grandfathered.” For those grandfathered employees a sliding scale was established for retiree medical contributions that ranged from a 90% Boston College contribution (for employees with 90 or more “points”) to a 55% Boston College contribution (for those with at least 55 “points”). If you have questions about the point system and/or what your designation might have been, please contact the Benefits Office at 617-552-3329 or benefits@bc.edu. For more information about this benefit and other retirement-related benefits, please use this link:

*Non-grandfathered” RMSA Eligible Employees

Employees hired on or after January 1, 2006, or who were hired before that date but did not have age plus years of eligible full-time service totaling at least 55 “points” on January 1, 2006, are considered to be non-grandfathered, RMSA eligible employees. Whenever you have any questions regarding your Boston College benefits, retirement related or otherwise, always feel free to contact the Benefits Office at 617-552-3329 or benefits@bc.edu.

RETIRED FACULTY PRIVILEGES AND SERVICES

BOSTON COLLEGE ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED FACULTY MEMBERSHIP

REGULAR MEMBERS

Boston College faculty members, including Professors of Practice, are automatically eligible to become regular members of the Association at the end of the academic year in which they formally retire or conclude active service to the University. Teaching an occasional course or performing another short-term post-retirement assignment within Boston College does not delay this entitlement.

All regular BCARF members are entitled to participate in all activities of the Association, to vote for Officers and Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee, and to hold such offices upon election by the membership for the terms, and subject to the total time limit as set forth in Article V of the bylaws.

HONORARY MEMBERS

Association members may propose to the Executive Committee for approval the names of retired university administrators who have made major contributions to the University and the BCARF. Honorary members may participate in all programs and activities of the Association, but may not vote or hold office.

THE JOHN D. DONOVAN ROOM

Since January, 2017, the office, meeting and storage space of BCARF has been located in St. Clement's Hall South on the Brighton Campus. In the fall of 2018 BCARF will move to space provided by the University at 300 Hammond Pond Parkway, the former Temple Mishkan Tefila. The Donovan Room is at the end of the corridor to the left of the main entrance. The room is furnished for meetings of the Executive Committee and the Book Club. Except for these regularly booked meetings, the room, equipped with four computers and a scanner/copier/color printer, is available for the use of retired faculty researchers. Members may obtain the code for the digital lock to the Donovan Room by contacting the BCARF President. A multi-purpose, hexagonal-shaped room, to the right of the main entrance has been renovated for Program Meetings, Research Seminars and other BCARF activities.

IDENTIFICATION CARD AND EMAIL ADDRESS

Faculty will continue to use the same Boston College ID card that they used prior to retirement. The ID card is necessary for library use and Bookstore discounts. Retired faculty receive the same Bookstore discounts as active employees. Retired Faculty may continue to use their BC email address or redirect email to an address of their choice. Contact Director, Finance and Administration at 617-552-3260 or provostoffice@bc.edu. Please notify the BCARF President of any change in your mailing address or your email address so that the latter may be added to the BCARF listserv. Annual updates of email addresses and passwords are required.

As of March 9, 2016 there will be an added level of security in PeopleSoft Human Resources, called BC 2-Step Verification. When you access PeopleSoft HR, in addition to using your username and password, you will be asked to verify your identity with a secondary method, such as a call to your phone or a text to your smartphone. To learn, visit: www.bc.edu/2step

LIBRARY AND COMPUTER FACILITIES

The Faculty Micro Resource Center (FMRC), a computing think-shop run by regular faculty for faculty, is located in O'Neill Library 250H, x2-4349, and with a Projects Lab in Carney Hall. Its online location is <http://fmwww.bc.edu/fmrc>. The FMRC Moderators are: M.J. Connolly (Slavic & Eastern Languages), cnmj@bc.edu and Kit Baum (Economics), baum@bc.edu. Contact the Moderators by email at any time for assistance. The facility in O'Neill 250H is available on a walk-in basis anytime when the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) is open, and the Moderators can arrange for you 24/7 access to the Projects Lab in Carney (3D printing, legacy equipment, etc). The facility in Higgins 250H is available on a walk-in basis anytime the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) is open.

COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION

There are a number of publications that enable retired faculty to receive information about Boston College. The Boston College Chronicle and the BC Magazine are mailed to all retired faculty. The Communications Directory may be ordered through the department or Dean's office and is available on-line.

In addition, the Boston College home page on the web (www.bc.edu) provides an array of Boston College information. Included are current news, an events calendar, academic calendar, directories, libraries, and an A to Z index, to name a few items. Via the internet, a person may view and/or listen to a number of BC lectures and events, and may also download many full text articles from electronic journals by going to the library website.

DINING SERVICES

All of the Boston College dining facilities are available to retired faculty, including the Faculty Dining Room and the Players Club for faculty and staff only. There are eight restaurants and snack bars across campus.

For information on dining facilities, including days and hours of operation, call 617-552-2263 or go to www.bc.edu/dining.

TUITION REMISSION FOR ACADEMIC COURSES

Retired faculty may attend academic courses offered at the University (excluding the Law School), tuition free, under the following conditions:

1. The course is not filled by regular students.
2. The course instructor gives his/her approval.
3. No more than two courses are taken in a semester.

It is assumed that courses will be taken for enrichment or to satisfy intellectual curiosity and that retired faculty might be able to make an informal arrangement with the instructor before the course begins. If course credit is desired, the faculty member must enroll formally through the Registrar's Office and obtain a Tuition Remission Voucher from the Benefits Office.

In certain courses there are fees or charges for equipment and/or supplies. All students, including retired faculty, must pay these charges as well as any applicable registration fees.

The spouse of a retired faculty member may also audit a course tuition-free by similarly making an informal arrangement with the course instructor.

ATHLETIC EVENTS AND RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

Retired faculty have the same access, including discounts, to athletic events and to the RECPLEX as do the active faculty. Presentation of an ID card may be required. The Rec Plex requires a letter from the Benefits Office confirming the retiree status of the faculty member.

Retired faculty members and their immediate families may skate at Conte Forum free of charge during general skating sessions on school days and at a nominal charge per person during evening, weekend, and holiday sessions upon presentation of an ID card.

MULTI-CULTURAL EVENTS

Throughout the academic year, Boston College sponsors a variety of multi-cultural activities open to all members of the University community. These include theater and dance events, University Chorale concerts, various musical and dance programs, lectures, guided tours of exhibitions at the McMullen Museum of Art, liturgical events, and many other events.

Notices of events are given in The Boston College Chronicle, in The Heights, and on the Events Calendar at events.bc.edu. Retired faculty are encouraged to participate in the multi-cultural events and to contact the offices of the sponsoring organizations to be placed on their mailing lists.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS AND GARDNER MUSEUM

Boston College's membership in the Museum of Fine Arts and Gardner Museum entitles the University to fifteen permanent passes for visits to the Museum without charge during the year. Retired faculty members are welcome to use these passes. The passes may be borrowed at the circulation desk of the O'Neill Library and returned there after the visit.

OFFICE SPACE AND SUPPORT SERVICES

Retired faculty members who require office space, secretarial services, and other support services in connection with continuing teaching, research, or administrative responsibilities should make necessary arrangements with the appropriate

Dean or Department Chair. The Donovan Room provides meeting space with computers, a scanner and a color printer, available only to retired faculty members.

FACULTY/STAFF ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Faculty/Staff Assistance Program provides professional counseling information and referral services to faculty, staff and their families. The program offers confidential consultation on a wide variety of personal, family or work-related problems. Each year a series of personal development programs is offered to faculty, staff and their families. These programs address issues of health promotion, family life, and legal and financial concerns. Retired faculty members who are interested in learning more about the services of the Faculty/Staff Assistance Program may contact the Program Director at 617-552-3340 to set up an appointment or visit the Program's website: www.bc.edu/hr/resources/programs/facultystaff-assist. The Faculty/Staff Assistance Program is located in O'Neill Library, Room 132.

PART-TIME TEACHING AND CONSULTING

Retired faculty members who wish to continue teaching on a part-time non-tenured basis are encouraged to:

1. Consult with the department chair about the possibility of offering a course or seminar, or temporarily replacing a faculty member who is on leave.
2. Consult with the Dean of the Woods College of Advancing Studies about the possibility of teaching a course on a weekday evening or a Saturday morning. Bring a course syllabus or description that might interest the mostly adult student population.
3. Investigate the possibility of offering a course, lecture, reading or workshop:
 - a. In Alumni Education, programs of interest to alumni and friends, sponsored by the Boston College Alumni Association. Contact: Associate Director, Alumni Special Services at 617-552-1607 or alumni.comments@bc.edu
 - b. At the Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life, pub-life@bc.edu Contact: Director, at 617-552-1862.
 - c. At The Church in the 21st Century Center, church21@bc.edu Contact: Director, at 617-552-2330.

ON-CAMPUS PARKING FOR BCARF ACTIVITIES

Ample parking is available at 300 Hammond Pond Parkway, the former Temple Mishkan Tefila, for all BCARF programs and activities. The building is just a short distance north of the entrance to the Chestnut Hill Mall and less than two miles from the Chestnut Hill Campus. No Boston College parking permit is needed.

If desired, a retiree may purchase a "G" permit for the year for parking on the Chestnut Hill or Brighton Campus. For complete information go to www.bc.edu/offices/transportation (Click Visitor/Guest Parking) or call the Office of Transportation at 617-552-0151 or send an email to transportation@bc.edu

BCARF PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

COMMITTEES

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee includes four elected officers: President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, two elected Members-at-Large, and the immediate Past President. The Jesuit Liaison is invited to participate in Executive Committee meetings with voice but without vote. The Executive Committee is the primary liaison with the University Administration through the Office of the Provost and Dean of Faculties and the Office of the Vice President for Human Resources. The Executive Committee seeks in varied ways to build the Association into an active and vibrant organization of retired academic colleagues of Boston College.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

A Nominating Committee of at least three members is charged with nominating candidates annually for the positions of those whose terms are expiring. Association members may submit nominations to the Nominating Committee for any vacancies no less than two months in advance of the Annual Meeting. To be nominated, a member must have expressed a willingness to actively serve if elected. The slate prepared by the Nominating Committee for online voting is distributed to the Association membership at least thirty days in advance. Results are announced at the May Annual Meeting.

GRANTS COMMITTEE

The Grants Committee reviews all grant applications and, evaluating the proposals on the basis of the selection criteria, selects the recipients. The primary criterion will be the merit of the proposal itself in the judgement of the Committee members. In addition, priority will be given to proposals that will assist retired faculty members to sustain or redirect their careers in the areas of research, education or service or to make significant progress on important projects that will likely produce significant results or that will assist in bringing existing projects to a successful conclusion. The BCARF President makes the announcement of the awards.

The Committee will also review the reports on the outcome of the funded efforts submitted by the recipients of the grants upon the completion of their projects.

BANQUET COMMITTEE

A festive Annual Banquet, which concludes BCARF's activities for the year, is held a few days after the University Commencement with up to 100 retired faculty and their guests usually in attendance. The Committee is responsible for site and food service arrangements, providing the evening's entertainment, obtaining gifts for the door prize raffle and extending an invitation to the Provost or the Vice Provost for Faculties to give an update on the highlights of the past academic year and a look at the year that lies ahead.

PROGRAM MEETINGS

There are eight Program Meetings of the BCARF each academic year, three in the fall and five in the spring to which all retired faculty are invited. Each of these mid-day gatherings (11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.) features a presentation on a topic of particular interest to the members, preceded by lunch and a brief business meeting.

The Program Coordinator has the responsibility of selecting topics of general interest to the membership and of identifying knowledgeable members of the faculty or administration, or others from outside the University, to be presenters. Once the year's meeting calendar becomes available during the previous spring semester, the Coordinator must contact prospective speakers well in advance in order to confirm their availability and willingness to address the retired faculty. When an engagement has been confirmed, a designated contact person must obtain a copy of the speaker's resume and the title of the presentation. This information is sent to the Center for Centers for the program invitation and posting on the website. The presenter must provide a list of services needed to the Information Technology, Technology Support Supervisor (2-4219). The designated contact person or another retired faculty member introduces the guest speaker at the Program Meeting.

RESEARCH SEMINAR

The Research Seminars, organized by Dennis Taylor in 2011, have continued ever since. The Seminars enable retired faculty to share their ongoing research and receive feedback and encouragement from their colleagues. Seven seminars are scheduled each year and cover a wide variety of topics, such as management, English, sociology, romance languages, and theology that reflect the scholarly interests of the participants. The luncheon meeting format, lasting for 90 minutes or so, has been very successful. Presentation topics are posted in advance on the BCARF website as they become available. David Northrup is currently serving as convener and moderator of the Seminars. Retired faculty interested in participating in the Seminars should contact David Northrup. (david.northrup@bc.edu)

BOOK CLUB

The Book Club meets on Thursday morning in the Donovan Room at 300 Hammond Pond Parkway. A book list is set in the fall and includes a variety of genres and tends to include current bestsellers. The person who nominates a book serves as the discussant. The group takes advantage of the many presentations by authors on campus and in the community. From time to time, a book is chosen that prompts a “literary field trip.” For example, after reading Geraldine Brooks’ March, members visited Orchard House, the Alcott home in Concord. After Reading Edith Wharton’s The House of Mirth the Book Club and other Association members visited “The Mount,” Wharton’s home in Lenox. For the past two years, the Research Seminar group has met immediately following the Book Club which makes it convenient to attend both. Contact: Jean Mooney (mooney@bc.edu)

MCMULLEN MUSEUM TOURS

Members enjoy guided tours of each new art exhibit at the McMullen Museum. These were initiated by honorary BCARF member, Peg Dwyer, who also served as the Docent for these tours until 2017. Arrangements are made to have one of the Museum’s Docents conduct future tours.

NEWSLETTER

The BCARF Newsletter provides an ongoing history of the Association and helps to establish and maintain contact among retired faculty and with Boston College itself. Each issue will generally include:

1. the calendar of meetings;
2. a review of recent BCARF activities;
3. announcements describing upcoming programs, events and service opportunities;
4. useful information such as privileges available to members;
5. news capsules relating to the lives, activities and health of retirees.

A BCARF Newsletter is posted on the retired faculty website (www.bc.edu/retiredfaculty) in late summer each year. Hard copies are available upon request for those who do not have computer access.

Contact: Paul Spagnoli (spagnoli@bc.edu)

WEBSITE

The website (www.bc.edu/retiredfaculty) was created by Boston College Web Services, along with Peter Olivieri, now the Web Manager, and input from the Association’s Executive Committee.

The website includes the Association’s bylaws, brief biographies of the Executive Committee, reports on activities and events, information on volunteer opportunities, remembrances of deceased colleagues, guidance for retirement planning, a photo gallery, copies of the BCARF Bulletin, (now the BCARF Newsletter), dating back to 2004, and the Boston College Guide for Faculty Retirement.

In her opening message that year, Jean O’Neil, then the Association’s President, remarked: “We hope this website will help us to continue to maintain a dialogue with all interested faculty, help you get to know us and to solicit and encourage your input and participation. Please enjoy looking through our website. Your comments and suggestions are appreciated.”

RETIRED FACULTY GRANTS

GUIDELINES AND DEADLINES

A limited amount of funds has been made available by the Provost’s Office for the purpose of providing grants for projects undertaken by members of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty. Grants will support travel and expenses for research, lectures, conferences, education, publishing, volunteer work and/or other significant activities carried out directly by the applicant. Normally a grant will be from $100 to $1,000 per person. A committee appointed by the Executive Committee of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty will review all applications and make the awards.

Each April an announcement will be made calling for proposals for research projects for the following academic budgetary year (June 1-May 31).

Projects are for the academic budgetary year, June 1-May 31. Upon its completion, a brief report on the outcome of the funded effort should be prepared and submitted to the President of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty.

Applications should include the following:

- Cover sheet.
- Description of proposed project (two pages maximum).
- Proposed budget (one page maximum).
- Summary CV.

Description of proposed project might include:

- Objectives for the proposed work and its significance.
- Relationship of proposed project objectives to your longer term goals.
- Relationship to other work by you or others.

CRITERIA OF SELECTION

The merit of the proposal as judged by the reviewers will be the primary criterion. In addition, priority will be given to proposals that will:

- Assist retired faculty members to sustain or redirect their careers in the areas of research, education or service or to make significant progress on important projects.
- Likely produce significant results.
- Assist in bringing existing projects to a successful conclusion.
- Reflect favorably on the University and its community of retirees.

TIMING OF PROPOSAL AND AWARD

Proposals should be submitted to the President of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty no later than the last working day of April. Awards will be announced by mid-May. Address proposals to: Paul G. Spagnoli, President of BCARF. If possible, please submit an electronic version to spagnoli@bc.edu. Surface mail to: Paul Spagnoli, 36 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467

EXPENSE REPORT

Receipts should be retained and submitted, up to the amount of the grant to: Fiscal and Events Assistant, Center for Centers, 10 Stone Avenue, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467. Receipts should be submitted within one month of when the expense occurred, and, in any event, by April 15. In submitting expenses, original receipts and a BC expense form must be submitted. See: <https://www.bc.edu/offices/cfc/services/financial-services/policies-procedures.html>, and select the “Non-BC Employee Form.”

ANNUAL BANQUET

A few days after Commencement, up to a hundred members, spouses, and guests enjoy a cocktail reception and dinner in the Murray Function Room in Yawkey Center. The bonus of the timing is that there is parking right outside the door! It is a wonderful opportunity for members to renew connections with friends and colleagues. The Provost or Vice Provost for Faculties is invited to give an update on the highlights in the current academic year and there may be dancing or entertainment. Contact: Loretta Higgins (loretta.higgins@bc.edu)

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

COMMENCEMENT PARTICIPATION

Retired faculty are invited to assist at the University Commencement, serving as a Faculty Marshal or a University Host or Hostess. A number of retired faculty have been serving as Faculty Marshals for a number of years, assisting with the academic procession into Alumni Stadium. Host and hostesses assist in distributing programs, welcoming guests, answering questions, giving directions, etc. Those interested in volunteering should contact the Commencement Office at commencement@bc.edu. The preferred assignment should be included in the email. Shortly before Commencement there are orientation meetings for those volunteering.

CONVERSATION PARTNERS PROGRAM

The main role of a conversation partner is to meet once a week with a graduate international student at a mutually convenient time and location and seek to help the student improve his or her English speaking skills and learn about Boston College and American culture.

Partners have to be members of the Boston College Community, be willing to commit to one hour per week, and attend a 30-60 minute orientation. Contact: Rosemary Krawczyk (rosekr1105@gmail.com)

SOAR 55 (SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES AFTER REACHING 55)

SOAR 55 is a volunteer-connector organization for adults aged 55 and older who would like to share their professional and experience-based skills with local public and nonprofit organizations that need help in Newton and Metro West. Assignments range from tutoring children, mentoring college enrolled inmates, assuming leadership roles in nonprofit organizations, to management consulting. Contact: Karen Albert (KAlbert@soar55.org)

IGNATIAN VOLUNTEER CORPS

New England Ignatian Volunteers are mature men and women seeking to share their time and talents in service to their community, and open to a year-long spiritual development program, including prayer and reflection in the Jesuit tradition. Ignatian Volunteers commit to two days per week of service, over a ten month period, in a parish, school or non-profit organization, working directly with the poor or in the pursuit of social justice; engage in spiritual reflection and journaling with the assistance of a “reflector” with whom he or she meets monthly; participate in two days of reflection, one overnight retreat and monthly meetings of the volunteers. For more information contact Dave Hinchey, IVC Regional Director, dhinchen@ivcusa.org or 617-327-2292.

MEMBERSHIPS

BOSTON AREA COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY RETIREE ASSOCIATION (BACURA)

Members of BACURA, that meets once or twice a year, are Boston College, Boston University, Harvard and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. BACURA's purpose is to learn from each other, work together, compare practices and associations and explore ways to form deeper connections with member organizations and meaningful service to retiree members. Where possible, BACURA members share and open programs (trips, lectures, events, volunteer opportunities) to member organizations.

ASSOCIATION OF RETIREMENT ORGANIZATIONS IN HIGHER EDUCATION (AROHE)

AROHE, the first national and international association of retiree organizations, is committed to advocating for, educating, and serving retired faculty and staff in higher education. AROHE brings together the talent, knowledge and experience of retired faculty and staff to improve the quality of their lives and that of their communities and institutions through creating new models of retirement. In 2002 AROHE was formally incorporated as a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization. The BCARF Executive Committee is on the AROHE listserv for announcements and newsletters. Two members of the Executive Committee attend AROHE's biennial meeting.

APPENDICES

BYLAWS

Boston College Association of Retired Faculty

ARTICLE I – NAME

The Boston College Association of Retired Faculty (BCARF), organized as a non-profit association, is governed by its bylaws.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES

The mission of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty is to maintain an ongoing relationship with the University that will provide retirees with the opportunity to (1) serve the retired faculty, (2) serve the University, (3) serve the community and the larger society, and (4) promote collegiality among retired professors for personal enrichment and active service.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Regular Members

Boston College faculty members, including adjunct faculty members, are automatically eligible to become regular members of the Association at the end of the academic year in which they formally retire from active service to the University. Teaching an occasional course or performing another short-term post-retirement assignment within Boston College does not delay this entitlement.

All regular BCARF members are entitled to participate in all activities of the Association, to vote for Officers and Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee, and to hold such offices upon election by the membership for the terms, and subject to the total time limit, set forth in Article V of the bylaws.

Honorary Members

Association members may propose to the Executive Committee for approval the names of retired university administrators who have made major contributions to the University and the BCARF. Honorary members may participate in all programs and activities of the Association, but may not vote or hold office.

ARTICLE IV – ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT

The affairs of the Association are the responsibility of the membership, administered by the Executive Committee, with day-to-day management by its officers.

ARTICLE V – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee includes four elected Officers, two elected Members-at-Large, and the immediate Past President, a total of seven members. The Jesuit Liaison is invited to participate in Executive Committee meetings with voice but without vote. Chairs of committees may be invited to attend Executive Committee meetings as appropriate, with voice but without vote.

Officers are the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected to serve for a term of two years and may be re-elected once. The President and Secretary shall be elected in odd years and the Vice President and Treasurer shall be elected in even years.

One Member-at-Large shall be elected annually for a term of two years and may be re-elected once.

Term of Office: The term of office on the Executive Committee shall be limited to two consecutive terms in the same position.

Election of all Officers and Members-at-Large will be held by email prior to the Annual Meeting of the Association and the results announced at this final meeting in May each year. The term of those elected commences on June 1 as the outgoing Executive Committee term ends following a transition meeting of orientation. The immediate Past President will serve ex-officio on the Executive Committee.

A Nominating Committee of at least three members recommended by the President, and approved by the Executive Committee, shall nominate candidates annually for each of the positions whose terms are expiring. It shall also nominate at least one candidate for any other expiring term. Association members may submit nominations to the Nominating Committee for any vacancies no less than two months in advance of the Annual Meeting. To be nominated, a member must have expressed a willingness to actively serve if elected. The slate prepared by the Nominating Committee, along with any additional nominations will be distributed to the BCARF membership at least thirty days in advance of the Annual Meeting in order to provide the opportunity for informed voting.

Vacancies occurring for any reason before the completion of a term of office shall be filled for the remainder of that term by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee has the power to make and amend rules for its own procedures, as long as they conform to these bylaws. It shall keep a written record of such new or changed procedures.

An Executive Committee member who is absent for more than three consecutive meetings without notice shall be considered to have resigned.

ARTICLE VI – DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Officers are the leaders of the Association and the primary liaison with the University Administration through the Office of the Provost and Dean of Faculties as well as with the Office of the Vice President of Human Resources. The President and members of the Executive Committee will seek varied means to build the Association into an active and vibrant organization of retired academic colleagues of Boston College, focusing on achieving the four purposes articulated earlier in the mission statement in these bylaws. Every opportunity will be undertaken to nurture and strengthen a mutually beneficial relationship with the University.

Specific duties include but are not limited to the following:

The President shall:

1. Call and preside at all Program Meetings of the membership and of the Executive Committee.
2. Exercise day-to-day management of the Association.
3. Appoint Chairs of committees, subject to approval of the Executive Committee.
4. Be an ex-officio member of all committees, except the Nominating Committee.
5. Recommend candidates of the Nominating Committee for approval by the Executive Committee.
6. Perform such other duties as required by the Executive Committee.

The Vice President shall:

1. Act in the absence of or during the incapacity of the President.
2. Accept other responsibilities as may be agreed upon by the President and Vice President.

The Secretary shall:

1. Provide the Executive Committee in a timely manner with minutes of meetings of the Executive Committee, annual meetings of the Association and, when requested, other meetings of the General Membership.
2. Maintain a current list of all retired members of the Boston College Association of Retired Faculty, including name, address (including phone and email), department or school from which retired.
3. Perform other duties as may normally be part of the office of Secretary or as assigned by the President or Executive Committee.

The Treasurer shall:

1. Maintain accurate financial records of the Association, and render periodic financial reports as requested at Executive Committee meetings.
2. Maintain an effective liaison with the Office of the Provost and Dean of Faculties to assure adequate financial resources are available to fund activities of the Association.
3. Annually prepare a draft budget for the following year for consideration and adoption by the Executive Committee at its last meeting prior to the Annual Meeting of the Association.
4. Perform other duties as may normally be part of the office of Treasurer or as assigned by the President or Executive Committee.

The Members-at-Large shall:

1. Assist with programming for general meetings by identifying and hosting speakers.
2. Perform other such duties as may be assigned by the Executive Committee.

The Jesuit Liaison shall:

1. Participate in the meetings of the Executive Committee with voice but without vote.
2. Serve as liaison between the BCARF and the Jesuit Community.
3. Represent the BCARF and Jesuit Community at wakes and/or funerals of retired faculty.
4. Serve as coordinator of the BCARF program to visit Jesuits at Campion Health Center.
5. Perform such other duties as may be assigned by the President or Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII – MEETINGS

The Executive Committee will meet monthly, except for July, August and December, for the purpose of transacting the ongoing business of the Association.

The Association's Annual Meeting of the membership will be held during May each year. Results of the election of Officers and Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee will be announced, and such other business of the Association as determined by the President and/or the Executive Committee will be conducted. Written notification of the Annual Meeting will be provided to all members at least ten working days in advance of the meeting.

Program Meetings of the membership will be held during the University's academic year. Invitations to the Program Meetings will be emailed or mailed to all Association members at least three weeks in advance of a scheduled meeting.

Subcommittees of the Executive Committee may be created as needed.

All meetings of the Association are governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

The Executive Committee will initiate a review of these bylaws every three years. Amendments to these bylaws may be made by a majority email vote of members prior to an Annual Meeting of the Association. Once an amendment is duly approved by a majority vote, it becomes effective immediately. The results will be announced at this final meeting in May each year.
